

South Carolina
AMBER ALERT
A Partnership of Law Enforcement & Broadcasting

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 24, 2006

The AMBER Alert Oversight Committee, along with the United States Postal Service, law enforcement officials, and families of recovered children, will be gathering in Columbia, SC on May 25, 2006, to unveil a new postage stamp to commemorate the history and achievements of the National AMBER Alert system.

Please join us as we honor the nation's ongoing efforts to raise awareness of America's missing and exploited children, and to help make child protection a national priority.

DATE: May 25, 2006

TIME: 2:30 p.m.

PLACE: The U.S. Post Office
1601 Assembly Street
Columbia, SC